

Business Valuation Consulting ■ Financial Advisory Services

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAROLYN ARMBRUST, FOUNDER OF AXCESS GROUP BUSINESS VALUATIONS, APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF THE ESTATE PLANNING COUNCIL OF LOWER FAIRFIELD COUNTY

August 1, 2013, Weston, Connecticut – The Estate Planning Council of Lower Fairfield County (EPC-LFC) has appointed Carolyn Armbrust as President of the professional association. Ms. Armbrust has been a board member of the EPC-LFC since 2009, and most recently held the position of First Vice President and Membership Director.

Ms. Armbrust is a resident of Weston, Connecticut and founded the Axcess Group's business valuation practice in 2001. She holds professional designations of Accredited Senior Appraiser from the American Society of Appraisers and is Accredited by the Institute of Business Appraisers. Ms. Armbrust's firm specializes in appraising privately held businesses for estate planning and settlement, charitable contributions, employee stock plans, executive compensation, mergers and acquisitions, buy/sell agreements, marital dissolutions, and other purposes.

The EPC-LFC has over 130 professional members involved in estate planning and estate settlement matters, including probate judges, licensed attorneys, certified public accountants, bank trust officers, accredited appraisers, certified financial planners, and chartered life underwriters. In addition to providing its membership with educational and networking opportunities, the EPC-LFC professional program offerings now qualify as forums to achieve continuing professional education units for CPAs and CFPs.

The EPC-LFC is one of 230 councils affiliated with the National Association of Estate Planners & Councils. For more information on the EPC-LFC, interested parties can visit our website at www.epclfc.org or contact Carolyn Armbrust, ASA, AIBA directly at (203) 226-3064.

####